

Catholic Social Teaching Principles

Secondary

Human Dignity

We believe that every person is created in God's image and that all human life is sacred. We believe in the dignity of each and every person.

We believe in working towards the good of everyone and looking beyond our own personal interests.

Common Good

Solidarity

We believe we are part of one human family and have a responsibility to help each person achieve their full potential.

We believe in every person's right to participate in the decisions that affect their own lives.

Subsidiarity

Preferential Option for the Poor

We believe in putting the women, men and children most vulnerable to extreme poverty and injustice first.

We believe that care for creation is vital for the good of all people. We believe a true ecological approach is about people. We are to be protectors of our common home and of one another.

Care for Creation

Participation

We believe that every person has the right to work and contribute to their communities. We believe that every person can create change in their own life.
