

Within each bubble students ask nominated people to describe in words or symbols different aspects of their personality and ways of being. Eg: Lee's friend says she is organised.

Around each bubble the people list the actions and behaviours of the student that that led to their description. Eg: Lee's friend who says she is organised, explained this by saying Lee reminds her of plans and training they need to go to.