About Us

- Notre Dame College Shepparton - One College, Two Campuses, Three Programs. NDC is a secondary college comprising of Year 7 to Year 12. We have the privilege of introducing staff and students to the Mercy and Marist charisms that have been integral to the history of this educational faith community.
- NDC is located in the sunny city of Shepparton, nestled in the Goulburn Valley and in close proximity to Melbourne, to the mountains and the rivers.
- Shepparton and the Goulburn Valley is considered the food bowl of Australia, producing fresh fruit and dairy products to domestic and international markets. Connectivity is first rate, be it transport, multimedia or socially.
- We are known for our family lifestyle, vast sporting opportunities, great restaurants and cafés, our growing arts and creative industries sectors and commitment to indigenous culture.
- 5. We have a culturally rich and diverse community with a great connection to people from overseas as we are a multicultural success story over the generations, welcoming nations from all corners of the globe. Notre Dame and Shepparton is warm, friendly and inviting and we look forward to you joining us.
