

Teaching Positions

Commencing in 2024

St Augustine's College is a co-educational Catholic college proudly providing student-centred learning experiences from Foundation to Year 12. Our vibrant faith community is a place where all people are welcomed.

Applications are sought from passionate and collaborative teachers with a desire to know the learner, know the person and know our faith to commence in 2024.

Our College values of Community, Learning for Life, Human Flourishing, Faithfulness and Partnership are at our core. Applicants must be able to demonstrate and articulate each of these values.

Please visit the College website for further information and to submit your application:
